NASCAR arrives in the Mexican Caribbean

April 25–26 | Event Dates

The arrival of NASCAR in the Caribbean for the first time marks a historic moment for the region. Hosted at Tulum International Airport, this event positions Tulum as a new hub for international motorsports, attracting the attention of fans, teams, and media from around the world.

An event that brings significant international traffic while expanding Tulum's narrative beyond wellness and beach culture, introducing large-scale global entertainment and generating a meaningful impact on the local economy. NASCAR drives tourism growth and strengthens the Mexican Caribbean's presence on the international stage.

Located approximately 25 minutes from the event venue, AMARI Uptown offers a strategic and elevated accommodation option. Not only for its proximity, but for its approach to hospitality: private villas, dedicated transportation services, and seamless operational logistics managed by a 24/7 Concierge team. AMARI delivers a thoughtfully designed experience for those looking to balance the energy of the event with comfort, privacy, and personalized service.
